BIRD FEST 2019

The Puget Sound Bird Fest is right around the corner! This three-day event, happening September 13th-15th, includes many interesting workshops, speakers, guided walks, and educational activities for children and adults.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Admission is free

General admission is free, but some activities require a small fee and/or advance registration. All registrations are made through Edmonds Parks & Recreation Department online registration system.

Activities For All Ages

Festival attendees can expect their favorite activities will be regularly offered, including presentations by expert birders, guided bird walks, visits to local natural habitats, live raptor presentations, and special activities for kids. Our Puget Sound Birding Cruise, hosted by the Edmonds Yacht Club, is a perennial favorite and fills up fast.

Festival Venue

The gathering place for the festival on Saturday is the Frances Anderson Center (FAC), 700 Main Street, Edmonds, WA. Field-based activities are held on Saturday and Sunday in parks in and around Edmonds.

USING THE BOAT LESS THIS FALL?

Is your boat under 22'? Why not save a little money in the off season? Check out our service in Dry Storage called PAY-PER-MOVE. Specifics about this promotion can be found on our website: <https://portofedmonds.org/marina/promotions/>

PAY-PER-MOVE

Lockdown a low monthly dry storage rate!

Only $130/per month + $25/per move

Move-in (launch to rack) = No charge

Move-out (rack to launch) = No charge

Monthly Rate = $130.00

All moves between move-in and move-out will be $25.00.
For example: rack to water is $25.00, water to wash down is $25.00, and wash down to rack is $25.00. Moves are subject to sales tax.

Pay-per-move is offered on a trial basis and is limited to dry storage boats under 22 feet, and is subject to end at any time. The monthly charge of $130.00 includes the environmental fee. Inquire at the marina operations office if you are interested in securing one of the limited pay-per-move spots.
